

Globalization And Nationalism Across The Taiwan Strait

台海兩岸之全球化和民族主義

Globalization and nationalism are the two of the most important economic and socio-political developments of our time. This conference will examine these two powerful forces in the context of cross-Strait relations between mainland China and Taiwan. It is now after the 2008 Taiwan election, and before the Olympics meeting in Beijing. The conference will bring students, scholars, officials and working professionals from Taiwan, mainland China, and the United States for a constructive conversation about the dynamics of globalization and nationalism, and their implications for the cross-strait relations.

全球化和民族主義是我們這個時代最具影響力的兩大經濟、社會和政治現象。本次會議將在台海兩岸關係的大背景下，對這兩種現象進行深入探討。值此台灣大選剛剛落幕，北京正積極籌備奧運盛會之際，來自台灣、中國大陸以及美國的學生、學者和各方專業人士將匯聚一堂，進行一次富有建設性的關於全球化和民族主義的全面討論，以期對台海兩岸關係之發展有所裨益。

Overseas Young Chinese Forum The 10th OYCF Annual Meeting

*Center for China-US Cooperation, University of Denver
Center for East Asian Studies, Stanford University
In Coordination with Stanford ChinaRains
Menlo College • Atherton • California • May 24-25 2008*

Friday, May 23 – Registration

4:00 - 8:00 pm

Registration and Check in.

Saturday, May 24 – Conference Room

7:45 am

Breakfast

8:30 am

Opening Remarks: OYCF Representative

8:45 am: Panel Overview

Qunjian Tian (田群健), Associate Professor of Government, Connecticut College

Dongtao Qi (祁冬濤), Ph.D candidate, Sociology, Stanford University

Saturday May 24 – Conference Room

9:00 - 10:20 am: Keynote Speech

Fei Tang (唐飛), Chairman, Taiwan Vision Forum and Associate Former Prime Minister, Taiwan
“2008 Presidential Election and Taipei’s Policy over Cross-Strait Relations”

Suisheng Zhao (趙穗生), Editor, the Journal of Contemporary China
Professor and Executive Director, Center for China-US Cooperation & East Asian Institute, Graduate School of International Studies, University of Denver
“Chinese Nationalism and Beijing’s Policy over Cross-Strait Relations”

10:25 - 10:40 am: Coffee Break

10:40 - 12:00 pm

Panel 1: Taiwan Question in the International Context

Ramon Myers (馬若孟), Senior Fellow, Hoover Institution, Stanford University
“U.S. Foreign Policy and the Taiwan Question”

Shaohua Hu (胡少華), Associate Professor, Government & Politics Department, Wagner College
“The Korean Factor in Cross-Taiwan Strait Relations”

Chair and discussant:

Lianggu Yin, Associate Professor of History, Director of Non-Western Studies, Mount Union College

Ruicong Duan (段瑞聰), Associate Professor, Faculty of Business and Commerce, Keio University; Visiting Scholar, Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center, Stanford University

12:00 - 2:00 pm: Lunch Break

2:00 - 3:20 pm

Panel 2 : Government, Business and Media across the Strait

Qunjian Tian (田群健), Associate Professor of Government, Connecticut College
“The High Politics of Small Firms: Government and Business in Cross-Strait Relations”

Ching-Lung Huang (黃清龍), Vice President, China Times, Taiwan
Visiting Fellow, Center for Northeast Asian Policy Studies, Foreign Policy Studies Program, The Brookings Institution
“The Changing Roles of the Media in Taiwan’s Democratization Process—Are There Lessons for China?”

Chair and discussant:

Stephen Lee (李定貽), Director, The 1990 Institute

3:25 - 3:40 pm: Coffee Break

Saturday, May 24 – conference Room

3:40 - 5:00 pm

Panel 3 : Party Politics and Political Mobilization in Taiwan

Eric Chen-hua Yu (俞振華), Research Fellow and Program Manager for the Democracy in Taiwan Program, Stanford University

“Divided or Polarized? The Dynamic of Partisanship and National Identity in Taiwan”

Wen-pin Lin (林文斌), Assistant professor, Department of Cultural Activities Development, Chia-Nan University of Pharmacy and Science (Tainan County, Taiwan)

“Electoral Reform and Local Political Mobilizations: a Case Study of Kaohsiung County”

Chair and discussant:

Willy Jou, PhD candidate, Political Science, University of California, Irvine

5:00 - 8:00 pm

Dinner, in celebration of the 10th anniversary of OYCF

Sunday, May 25 – Conference Room

7:45 am: Breakfast

8:30 - 9:10 am: Keynote Speech

Mau-kuei Chang (張茂桂), Research Fellow, Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica, Taiwan

“Identity Politics or Institutional Process? Selected issues on the study of Taiwanese Nationalism in Contemporary Taiwan”

9:10 - 9:25 am: Coffee Break

9:30 - 10:50 am

Panel 4: Political and Social Changes across the Strait

Xueguang Zhou (周雪光), Professor of Sociology, FSI senior fellow, Stanford University

“基層政府間的‘合謀行為’：一個非正式行為制度化的組織分析”

“Collusions among Local Governments: the Legitimation of an Illegitimate Government Phenomenon”

Ming-feng Liu (劉名峰), PhD candidate, 法國巴黎高等社會科學院 (EHESS :Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales)

“台灣民眾之國族想像中的「中國性」及其變遷：現代情境下裡的創造性轉化(1920-2008)”

“The Contents and Changes of ‘Chineseness’ in the Construction of ‘Imagined Community’ in Taiwan: Creative Transformation of Tradition in the Modernizing Project”

Chair and discussant:

Lu Zheng (鄭路), Assistant Professor, Sociology, Texas A&M University

Sunday, May 24 – conference Room

10:50 am - 12:10 pm

Panel 5 : Pro-independence Administration and Politics in Taiwan

Dongtao Qi (祁冬濤), PhD Candidate, Sociology, Stanford University

“A Double-edged Sword of the Movement Administration’s Movement Strategy: the DPP Administration, Taiwan Independence Movement and Their Social Base in Taiwan, 1996-2008”

Chunjuan (Nancy) Wei (衛純娟), PhD, Political Science, Claremont Graduate University

“Politics and Governance: How Did the Democratic Progressive Party Win the Election but Lose Taiwan?”

Chair and discussant:

Xiaojing Sun (孫曉晶), Master of Environmental Management, Nicholas School of the Environment and Earth Science, Duke University

Qing Li (李清), Master Student, East Asian Studies Program, Stanford University

12:10 - 2:25 pm: Lunch

2:30 - 4:30 pm

Panel 6: Rise of Nationalism and Identity Politics across the Strait

Shu-Juo Chen (陳叔倬), PhD Candidate, Anthropology, Stanford University

“How Han are Taiwanese Han?— Genetic inference of plains indigenous ancestry among Taiwanese Han, and implication for Taiwan national and ethnic identity”

Hui Zhang, PhD student, Education, UCLA

“Revival of Traditional Festivals – The Rise of Cultural Nationalism and the Contestations over Symbols and Myths”

Hsiang-ning Wang (王祥寧), PhD student, Educational Leadership and Policy Studies, Indiana University

“I Live in Two Places’ – Transmigrant Experiences of Taiwanese Children in China”

Chair and discussant:

Melissa Brown (鮑梅立), Anthropology, Stanford University

4:30 - 4:40 pm:

Concluding Remarks and Logistics

4:40 - 6:30 pm:

Volleyball Tournament (OYCF Philadelphia Cup)

6:30 - 11:00 pm:

Dinner and Celebration Party

Program and Organization Committees – 2008
(In Alphabetical Order)

Program Committee

Qi, Dongtao. Ph.D. Candidate, Stanford University (Co-Chair)
Tian, Qunjian. Associate Professor, Connecticut College (Co-Chair)

Organization Committee

Center for East Asian Studies, Stanford University
Sun, Chaofen.

Center for China-US Cooperation, University of Denver
Zhao, Suisheng

ChinaRains, Stanford University
Yan, Hao. Stanford University
Yang, Ling. Ph.D Candidate, Sociology, Stanford University

Overseas Young Chinese Forum
Guang, Lei. Associate Professor, San Diego State University
Li, Yan. Ph.D. Candidate, Stanford University
Ma, Junling. Attorney, Los Angeles
Shen, Weirwei. Ph.D. Candidate, Stanford University
Sun, Su. Economist, Economists Inc., Washington DC
Wu, Duan. Attorney, Boston.
Xu, Katherine. Credit Suisse, NYC
Zheng, Lu. Assistant Professor, Texas A & M University
Zou, Hao. Washington Mutual, San Francisco

Program Coordinator

He, Xiaobin. Ph.D Candidate, Sociology, Stanford University
Li, Qing. M.A., East Asian Studies Program, Stanford University
Luo, Tianjue. Ph.D Student, Sociology, Stanford University
Ou, Yajun (Alex).
Qiao, Zhijian. Ph.D Student, History, Stanford University
Wann, Bauer (Chia-yun). Henry Gunn High School (Palo Alto, California)
Yang, Xufeng. Ph.D Student, Graduate School of Business, Stanford University
Zhang, Xiaoya. M.A., East Asian Studies Program, Stanford University